

Intelligent creative energy flows through the universe birthing the creative essence in all that is manifested. Moving alongside this creative energy, that has potential to birth much in the way of harmonious, love filled life is the gift energy current of free will choice. Humans have free will to use the creative energy for manifestation of both a lower or higher vibrational life. And so duality exists and the creative power of the intelligent creative energy used unconsciously or consciously fuels both the lower or higher choices you get to make. Yes, you get to use that intelligent creative energy everyday in anyway YOU choose.

Your higher conscious aspect of self as energetic substance is closer in mirror content to the intelligent creative flow of the Creator's energy. And yet through free will you can choose to live mainly in the external world experiences and daily situations of the reality your biological eyes see. You have journeyed for a moment away from the higher conscious aspect of you, expanding into that which is material reality, dense and often times low in vibrational content.

Your higher conscious aspect of self knows it is the mirrored energy formation of the Creators essence, its ultimate goal, to manifest the heaven we all know, the beautiful harmonious world we all have as a vision. Your higher conscious aspect of self is waiting patiently till you consciously choose to connect and call it forth. Therefore unifying not only the levels of yourself into an integrated flowing vessel for higher conscious quality energy but also unifying you to the Creators essence that birthed your higher conscious aspect of self as storehouse for its intelligent creative energy flow into the world.

Energy vibrations which are consciously called forth from our own higher conscious self are the mirror content of the intelligent creative energy vibrations of the Creator. Connecting and calling forth Creator quality energy from our higher conscious self will manifest into our world, content of a matching vibration. We are in human form ,a creative expression of the Creators intelligent creative energy and it is now time we honor that and allow the loving intent of an intelligent creative Creator to produce through us an external world, that will mirror back all that is recognized as being of its higher vibration.

That highest vibration is Love
